PETITION FOR TURN-OVER ORDER

Pursuant to FED.R.CIV.P. 69(a) and Section 2-1402 of the Illinois Code of Civil Procedure, 735 ILCS 5/2-1402, David Cikanek (the Respondent in this action), hereby submits his Petition for a turn-over order, assigning to a client funds account of his attorney Renan Sugarman the assets of Joseph Stevens & Co., Inc., disclosed by Citation Respondent Citibank N.A. ("Citibank") to be on deposit with Citibank. In support of this petition, the undersigned states:

1. On July 21, 2008, this Court entered a money judgment in favor of David Cikanek and against Joseph Stevens & Co., Inc., in the amount of $238,519.00, confirming an arbitration award in favor of David Cikanek of $213,750 (plus prejudgment interest).
2. FED. R. CIV. P. 69(a) provides that the enforcement of a judgment in Federal Court shall be in accordance with the practice and procedure of the laws of the state in which the court sits; to wit, Illinois. Section 2-1402 of the Illinois Code of Civil Procedure provides that the judgment creditor may commence supplementary proceedings by requesting the issuance of a Citation to the third party who is thought to be in possession or control of the judgment debtor's property. Accordingly, the undersigned requested and obtained a Citation to Discover Assets to Citibank, and duly served the same upon Norma C. Rivas, an Assistant Manager of Citibank at 69 West Washington Street, in Chicago.

3. On August 14, 2008, the undersigned received from this Court's Electronic Filing System a document filed in this case in the name of Citibank. In that filing, Becky Comenzind, an agent of Citibank, disclosed that Citibank had on deposit $82,688.19 in a checking or NOW account belonging to Joseph Stevens & Co., Inc. (EXHIBIT A)
4. No amount of the judgment has been paid to date.

For the reasons set forth above, this Court should order Citibank, N.A., to turn over the assets of Joseph Stevens & Co., Inc., disclosed to be on deposit by Citibank, and should direct such turn-over to the Client Funds Account of Renan Sugarman, P.C., attorney at law, Account #1879367, maintained at Northern Trust Company, 50 South LaSalle Street, Chicago, IL 60603, or alternatively to the Client Funds Account of the undersigned's law firm, Blau & Malmfeldt Client Funds Account, also maintained at Northern Trust Company at the same address (Account #3800270161).

Respectfully submitted,
